<sup>1</sup> “General Receipts” include items such as weekly church support contributions, building and maintenance fund contributions, capital improvement contributions, cemetery plot sales, interest on diocesan savings accounts, and parish hall rental.

<sup>2</sup> “Extraordinary Receipts” include fees raised from religious education tuition, vacation bible school fees, diocesan investments cashed in from our savings accounts, disaster relief contributions, and agency and mission collections. It also includes the loan draws necessary for the completion our Capital Improvement Project! This year, St. Margaret also received approximately $30,000 as a benefit from the Payroll Protection Program.

<sup>3</sup> “Administrative Expenses” include items such as staff salaries and other related payroll expenses, utilities, postage, office supplies, liturgical supplies, contracted services, and offertory envelope purchases.

<sup>4</sup> “Parish Share Contributions” include the monthly taxa imposed by the Diocese of Baton Rouge on church support contributions. This number changes annually based upon parochial income and has decreased from the past fiscal year. Bishop Duca gave all parishes a two-month deduction this past fiscal year. He plans, at minimum, to give all parishes a 10% deduction for FY 2020-2021.

<sup>5</sup> “Pastoral Services” include expenses such as those related to the religious education of children and adults, sacramental preparation materials, youth group, liturgy, and music expenditures.

<sup>6</sup> “Plant Operations and Maintenance” includes all insurance, repairs, replacements, and supplies for the buildings and property of St. Margaret, St. Thomas, and the St. Margaret Cemetery.

<sup>7</sup> “Capital Expenses” include equipment purchases and capital improvements to parochial property, especially to St. Margaret Church and her parking lots through the past year.

<sup>8</sup> “Extraordinary Expenses” include items such as agency or mission collection disbursements, transfers to and from parochial savings accounts, disaster relief disbursements, and other miscellaneous items.
