

Advent Mission 2022

Return to the Heart

St. Margaret, Queen of Scotland
30300 Catholic Hall Road
Albany (Hammond), LA

Sunday, 04 December, 7:00PM
Monday, 05 December, 7:00PM
Tuesday, 06 December, 7:00PM

Presented by:

Dr. Shane Owens

Dr. Shane Owens is assistant professor of theology at Franciscan Missionaries of Our Lady University in Baton Rouge, Louisiana. He has also taught at the Catholic University of America, the Dominican House of Studies, and the Franciscan University of Steubenville. His theological work focuses on reading the Bible from the heart of the Church with a particular focus on the writings and person of St. Augustine of Hippo. He is also a regular contributor to the Letters From Home podcast on the daily Mass readings with the St. Paul Center for Biblical Theology founded and led by Dr. Scott Hahn. He has published several articles in scholarly journals and has a forthcoming book entitled, Return to the Heart: The Spiritual Theology of St. Augustine's Confessions, upon which this mission will be based.

Dr. Owens is married to his lovely wife Esther. They have a son, Bobby, and a daughter, due to be born shortly before Christmas. They attend Christ the King parish in Baton Rouge, Louisiana.

Advent Potluck

The Advent Mission will conclude with Yummy for Your Tummy fellowship on Tuesday, 06 December 2022. Please join us after the mission with your favorite side dish. St. Margaret will provide the main course. What can you bring? Well here's a list! If your last name begins with these letters, please bring the following:

- | | |
|--------------|----------------------------------|
| A - G | Appetizers, Finger Foods |
| H - R | Desserts |
| S - Z | Veggies, Casseroles, Side Dishes |