KC Hall, Independence, LA

Guest Speaker: Sandy Frantz

A cradle Catholic, Sandy grew up in Metairie where she met her husband, Steve, of 42 years. Steve and Sandy have been living in Baton Rouge for most of their married life and are members of St. George Catholic Church. They have 2 happily married children and 2 beautiful grandchildren.

While devoted to weekly Sunday mass, Sandy's faith didn't truly begin to flourish until after her mother's death. She began attending silent retreats and reading Holy Scripture and devotionals daily. Sandy also audited classes at Notre Dame Seminary for 5 years, realizing how much she did not know about God and her Catholic faith. With this new knowledge Sandy began to develop a personal relationship with our Lord through Adoration. But it was her mother's spiritual influence and devotion to our Blessed Mother that, in the end, awakened Sandy's desire to serve. Sandy will share her journey with us. A journey of Faith, Adoration, Surrender and the powerful workings of Mary, our Queen and Mother.
