DIVINE MERCY SUNDAY

The Sunday after Easter is Divine Mercy Sunday, a Day of Extraordinary Grace. All of Lent is a preparation for the most important feast of Easter, but we actually celebrate it over eight full days, which is why we call it the Octave of Easter. The Second Sunday of Easter, Mercy Sunday, is the last day of the octave, the eighth day.

In a series of revelations to Saint Maria Faustina Kowalska, Our Lord repeatedly called for the celebration of the Feast of Mercy on the first Sunday after Easter. Specifically he told St. Faustina :

“...My daughter, tell the whole world about my inconceivable mercy. I desire that the Feast of Mercy be a refuge and shelter for all souls, and especially for poor sinners. On that day [Divine Mercy Sunday], the very depths of My tender mercy are opened. I pour out a whole ocean of graces upon those souls who approach the fount of My mercy...On that day, all the divine floodgates through which graces flow are opened. The soul that will go to confession and receive Holy Communion shall obtain complete forgiveness of sins and punishment.”

“Ordinarily, only the sacrament of Baptism effects in the soul the ‘complete forgiveness of sins and punishment.’ Reception of the Eucharist in a state of grace ordinarily remits only venial sin, strengthening the soul against both venial and mortal sin (Catechism, 1394, 1394-1395). But on Mercy Sunday reception of Holy Communion worthily and with trust in God's Mercy pours out upon the soul a complete renewal of baptismal grace.” Rev. Ignacy Rozycki, STD, Former Member of the Holy See's International Commission

To receive the special graces of Divine Mercy Sunday:

- Place complete trust in God's mercy.
- Repent of all your sins and go to Confession within a reasonable time before or on the Feast (during Lent suffices).
- Celebrate God's mercy by attending Mass and receiving Holy Communion (as always, while in the state of grace (no mortal sin)) on Divine Mercy Sunday or the vigil.
- Venerate the image of The Divine Mercy.
- Be merciful to others, by our actions, words, or prayers.
- “The graces of My Mercy are drawn by Trust. The more a soul trusts, the more it will receive.” (Our Lord to St. Faustina).
- If you are home bound, cannot receive the Eucharist, not Catholic, need to know essentials, or want to enhance your celebration see:

May our merciful Lord calm the fears of all expectant mothers, fill them with His peace, and provide for every need.

Our Father, 3 Hail Marys, Glory Be

REFLECT

Each year, on the Second Sunday of Easter, the Church celebrates the Sunday of Divine Mercy, remembering the message Jesus so ardently instructed St. Faustina to spread of His endless mercy and forgiveness to those who seek it. Rooted in Christ's message of Divine Mercy is trust: trust that Jesus loves us, desires to heal our souls, and is with us.

This is an especially important message for expectant mothers preparing for the births of their children. They may often be gripped by fear and anxiety, without sources of support. May we prayerfully consider how we are called to help mothers who may be struggling in a particular way. And in our own lives, each of us is invited to come to Jesus just as we are and lay our cares, fears, and anxieties upon Him. The words Christ revealed to St. Faustina, He speaks to us and all who feel afraid: "Lay your head on my shoulder, rest and regain your strength. I am always with you" (Diary, no. 848). As we seek to live out the message of Divine Mercy, we pray for the courage for all to proclaim, "Jesus, I trust in you!"

ACT (choose one)

- Pray the Chaplet of Divine Mercy (uscgb.org/divine-mercy-chaplet) at 3:00 pm, the Hour of Mercy, for expectant mothers.
- Jesus spoke to St. Faustina, "Reveal all the wounds of your heart. I will heal them" (Diary, no. 1487). Expose the cuts and wounds of your heart to Christ and allow His healing mercy to reach every hurt and hidden pain through the Sacrament of Reconciliation.
- Offer some other sacrifice or prayer that you feel called to do for the featured intention.
